Dedication

To a teacher who can be looked upon at all times for sound advice and encouragement; a friend who has devoted valuable time, limitless effort, and never-ending energy to the students and faculty of Rose High; one who never refuses to help an individual, but does so with the sensitivity and awareness required; someone who possesses the rare and special qualities which make a person become a dedicated teacher; the '68 TAU is dedicated to you, Mr. T. S. Whitney.

In Many Directions

. . . club meetings . . .

. . . where the action is . . .

The horizons that come with every new day widen in new directions for every student at Rose High. Approaching these new directions, we gain intangible rewards of wisdom, experience, success and a better understanding of ourselves. With this better understanding, we become more certain of our course and its challenge. We can meet the hardships of our path and with the steadfastness of faith, hope and desire, we will achieve the ultimate -- our goal.

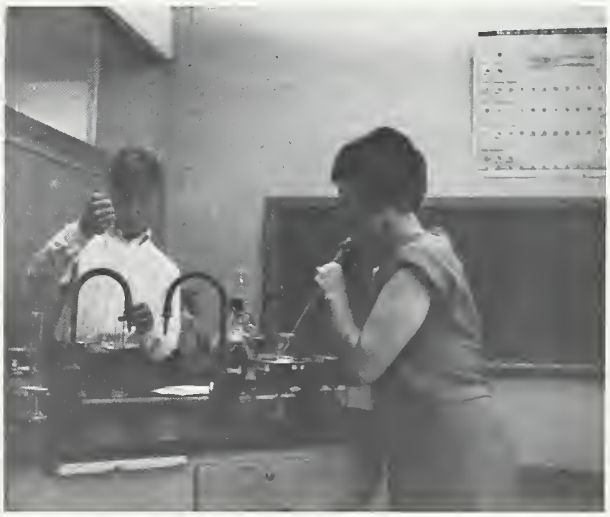
"If only I was back at St. Mary's."



Pucker up, Buttercup!

"I hope this is better than my faculty picture!"

"Look! Look! See Jane run!" And this is our competitor??

And this is speech class??

Confidential - men only!

"For the last time, 'adios' does not mean hello!"

Who's Who

Having excelled in scholarship, leadership, service, and participation in extra curricular activities to Rose High School, twelve seniors were named Who's Who. After screening letters of nomination, faculty members reached a final selection. Initiated for the first time, it is hoped that Who's Who will continue to be recognized in future editions of the TAU.

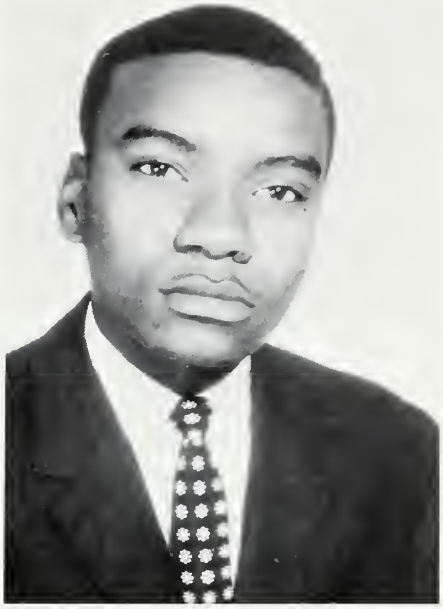
ALICE DREW DUNN

Energetic Alice Dunn has proved to be multi-talented by her varied activities. Since her sophomore year she has been active in the Future Teachers of America, the Science Club, and the Pep Club, serving as vice-president of the Future Teachers her junior year. Displaying her academic abilities, Alice was a member of the French Club and was selected as a marshall. Rewarded for her potential, she was chosen to co-edit the 1968 TAU and was elected to the Quill and Scroll Honor Society. Always adaptable to new and different situations, Alice eagerly anticipates entering the University of Georgia in the fall.

CHRISANTHE CHRIS KARES

Chris, a very conscientious hard-worker, has proved to be outstanding and active as a National Honor Society member her junior and senior years. Taking an interest in other activities, Chris was president of the Future Teachers of America, a member of the Quill and Scroll Honor Society, and co-business manager of the 1968 TAU. She plans to attend the University of North Carolina at Greensboro next year with intentions of teaching primary education upon graduation.

JOHN BARRET CLARK



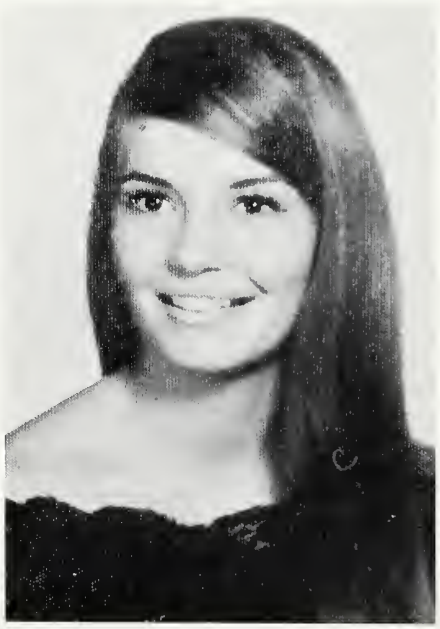
Winning the hearts of Rose High Students, music prodigy John Clark has greatly contributed to the choral department of the school. He has actively participated in Chorus all through high school and was elected president and student director of chorus his senior year. Because of his musical accomplishments, John attended the State Choral Festival and was honored by being selected to attend Governor's School his junior year. John's avid interest in music helped him organize Rose High's first folk singing group, the Birodanjles. John plans to further his music education at either St. Andrew's College or East Carolina University.

JUDYE ELAINE LANGLEY

Officiating as president of the Quill and Scroll Honor Society, the Future Nurses of America, and past president of Girl's Chorus, Judy, a National Honor Society member, has served Rose High well. Her interests, centered around journalism, are expressed in her hard work as assistant editor of THE GREEN LIGHTS. Judy also represents the student body as representative of the Student Co-operative Association and chairman of the Constitution Committee. With plans to continue her education at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, Judy will continue to remain a Who's Who.

SUSAN JOANN LEITH

Sue, voted by her peers as "Best All Around", supports this honor with her endless variety of activities. Active in student affairs, she serves as vice-president of the Student Co-operative Association and a cheerleader for the third year. A favorite among the school, Sue reigns as the 1968 Homecoming Queen, Miss Courtesy, and a former Miss Freshman. Also being a representative to Girls' State adds to the list of outstanding qualities of a deserving Who's Who.



DUKE ARTHUR CLARKE

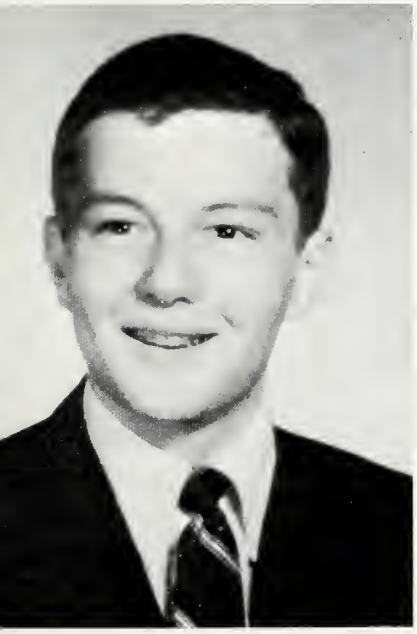
Known for his sincere and good-natured attitude, athlete Duke Clarke has won the admiration of both students and teachers. He serves the school as chairman of the Citizenship Committee and represented the student body as Junior Lion. Excelling in many sports, Duke participates in wrestling, track, and football. Recognizing his superior ability in football, sports writers and high school coaches throughout North Carolina selected him to the All County, All Conference, All East, and All State teams. This Lineman of the Year was honored as he was chosen as Rose High's only participant in the annual Shrine Bowl game. Highlighting his interest in sports, Duke is also a member of the Monogram Club. He is a prospective student for Appalachian State University.

JAN DARE LLOYD

Jan, as voted by her fellow students "Most Sincere", does take her work and responsibilites sincerely. Working diligently as co-editor of the 1968 TAU, Jan proves to be an excellent organizer and a worthy member of the Quill and Scroll Honor Society. She has enjoyed her participation in chorus all through high school and since her junior year has been active in the school's first folk singing group, the Birodanjles. A representative to the Student Co-operative Association and to Girls' State, Jan, planning a teaching career, will attend East Carolina University.

VIRGINIA MORROW MINGES

Chosen as a National Honor Society member her junior and senior years, Ginger proves herself worthy in the areas of leadership, scholarship, and service. With ceaseless energy she cheers the team to victory and discusses school affairs in the Student Co-operative Association. Recognizing her special talent for artistic values and co-ordination, her peers voted her "Best Dressed" and scrapbook organizer for the Future Teachers of America. Ginger, directing her college life towards Salem or Converse College, is sure to be successful in any field she chooses.



LESLIE HOLLAND GARNER, JR.

Proving himself worthy of the title "Most Likely to Succeed", Les Garner has already succeeded in high school. Quite versatile, Les excels in academics as well as extra-curricular activities. He is co-chief Marshal and a National Merit Finalist. A Morehead Finalist also, he serves as vice-president of the National Honor Society. His work on THE GREEN LIGHTS earned him the editorship his senior year and membership in the Quill and Scroll Honor Society. Les served as football manager for three years and is a member of the Monogram Club. He plans to continue his education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

ELIZABETH LORRAINE MOORE

Possessing a great scholastic value, Beth is worthy of her title of co-chief of the marshals and "Most Intellectual". Beth officiated as the National Honor Society president during her senior year and managed the school paper THE GREEN LIGHTS. Beth was also a member of Quill and Scroll Honor Society. A prospective student for the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Beth will continue to exhibit her qualities as a leader and a deserving Who's Who.

MARGARET BLOW SCALES

Enthusiastic and bringing joy to all, Margaret has proved to be one of Rose High's finest leaders. Organizing this years colorful homecoming activities, Margaret has led the junior varsity and varsity cheerleader squads with endless patience and success. Secretary for the National Honor Society and a representative to Student Co-operative Association and Girls' State, Margaret will surely continue to uphold her title of "Most Likely to Succeed". Margaret plans to attend either Salem or Converse College.

MICHAEL LEE ALDRIDGE

Mike has proved himself successful in both school affairs and athletics. Possessing the qualities of a capable leader, he has led the Student Co-operative Association and the Monogram Club through a successful year. Mike was selected to attend Boys' State because of his outstanding achievements. Being the avid sports enthusiast that he is, Mike participates in football, basketball, and baseball. He served as co-captain of the football team and was named to the All Conference baseball team. Mike, voted "Best All Around" by his classmates, plans to attend East Carolina University.

Activities

All the anticipation, excitement, and preparation during the month of October came to a revealing peak when the assembly was held for Rose High's 1967 Homecoming Activities. The gym's decorations carried out the theme "Phantom Carnival" with the most splendid array of balloons, clowns, booths, and caged Red Devils. Also enhancing the decorations was the debut of the Homecoming court: Miss Freshman, Kathy Robbins; Miss Sophomore, Bonnie Hahn; Miss Junior, Brenda Morgan; and Homecoming Queen, Sue Leith; Mr. and Miss School Spirit, David Hahn and Becky White; and football sponsors. That night after the biggest Homecoming parade yet, the football team played an overwhelming victory over the Kinston Red Devils. Yes, it was truly an exciting Homecoming--one not likely to ever be forgotten!

27 — 20

With great expectations the new 1967 edition of the Greenville Phantoms set out to prove that they were not just another Greenville team. Their first victims were the Falcons of 2-A Bertie. This opening home victory helped many to realize that the Phantoms were going to cause trouble.

As the Season Progressed

38 — 0

The many weeks of summer practice and dedication continued to pay off as the Phants met their first conference foes, the Tarboro Tigers. Disregarding all past battles with these Tigers, Greenville handed them a sweet defeat and began to pose a threat.

18 — 7

Ignoring the temporary No. 1 ranking of the Roanoke Rapids team, the Phants invaded "Jacketsville" with a determined look. Combining a precisioned offense with a briarpatch tough defense, Greenville produced their most perfect game. When the Phantoms left the field, the Jackets and their Coach knew they were stung.

40 — 0

Things continued to look bright as the Greenville Phantoms returned home to meet a rather new member of the conference, East Carteret. The team helped welcome them to the conference with a clean, easy 40-0 victory.

This Is How It Was Done

7 — 27

The team was not quite the same as a very surprising Washington team managed to spoil the Phantoms' previously perfect record.

35 — 26

Without letting the earlier defeat hurt their morale, the Phants made a grand showing for the homecoming fans against the Red Devils of Kinston. Coach Phillips' T-formation proved its power over the old single-wing once again.

26 — 14

Traveling to Elizabeth City, the team was forced to upset the Jackets' Homecoming. It seemed to many, that in order to be in the running, Greenville was fast becoming the team which the others must beat.

Win, Lose, or Even Draw

7 — 13

A victory over the Rams of Havelock would put the Phantoms in the sectionals with first ranked New Bern. However, this proved to be a problem as the Greenville offense was unable to score after penetrating inside the 5 yard line several times.

14 — 14

In a must game, the Phants met a very determined Patriot team in Ficklen Stadium. The winner of this battle would capture the No. 2 berth and continue in the play-offs. After 48 minutes of fearsome fighting by both teams, the game ended in a tie, thus, solving all problems.

6 — 35

With only one regular season game to be played, the Phants had to win in order to continue playing. However, the keyed-up No. 1 New Bern team was not going to be beaten. The 1967 Greenville Phantoms ended an impressive year with a 6-3-1 record.

The Baby Phants had the best season in several years. Coached by Mr. Denard Harris and Mr. Nelson Best, the Baby Phants rolled to a 3-5-1 record for the season. After losing the first four games, the team seemed to have found themselves and went on to win all but one of their last five games. The large number of boys to participate had the desire, ability, and spirit to prove themselves throughout the season.

Through the Loop

This year, with a very impressive group of Rose High's basketball players, Coach Best was able to develop a team that burned the wings of several conference foes, who previously thought themselves unbeatable. The results of such teamwork were hot shooting, good play making, and a tough defense.

Because of the loyal spirit of the businessmen and merchants of Greenville, we, the members of the Tau Staff, have been able to make the 1968 Tau a better publication. Not only are we indebted to you for supporting our annual but also for making Greenville a much better place in which to live. We shall always be grateful for the genuine interest you have shown toward our annual, our school, and our community. We only hope that we have fulfilled your expectations.

Again we say "Thank You." Without your support the publication of the 1968 Tau would not have been possible.
